

The Ego Show! A juried, all-media show to be held Sept. 5 to October 11, 2008 at the Newark Arts Alliance in Newark, Delaware

Juror: Ryan Grover is the curator of the Biggs Museum of American Art in Dover, Delaware. He studied art history at the University of Wisconsin and has curated exhibits of both traditional and contemporary art.

Eligibility: 2-D and 3-D original work in all media by US artists 18+ that fits the theme of the show is eligible.

- The work of the ego show should attempt to define the state of mind of a specific personality/identity at a particular space and time.

2-D work must have a maximum (framed) diameter of 36". All shipped work must use acrylic/plexi rather than glass (if work is so covered) and must be wired for hanging. 3-D work must be suitable for presentation on a pedestal. Maximum weight for any artwork is 25 pounds. The juror and the NAA reserve the right to reject accepted work after arrival if it is found not to meet these criteria, if the work was not faithfully represented by the submitted images, or if the work does not meet professional exhibition standards (e.g. clean mats and no scratches on acrylic).

Entry requirements: Up to three works may be submitted for a fee of $25 for non-members or $15 for members of the Newark Arts Alliance. Submit 1 jpeg image for each 2-D work, or up to 2 images for each 3-D work. Jpeg files should have a maximum diameter of 800-1200 pixels, and saved at 72 dpi at "medium" compression. File names should be the artist's last name followed by a number that corresponds to the submission form, e.g. jones1, jones2 and jones3. Save the files to the CD, and ensure that your name is written on the CD in permanent marker.

Deadline: Submissions must be received at the Newark Arts Alliance by June 20, 2008.

Notification: Artists will be notified by email no later than July 26. CDs will be returned if sent with a self-addressed envelope with adequate postage.

Accepted work: Artists with work accepted by the juror will receive instructions by email. Artist will hand-deliver work during NAA business hours August 28-31, or mail the work to arrive at the NAA between August 23 and August 30. Mailed work must be sent in a reusable box/shipping container, and must include a return label and return postage stamps or a pre-paid UPS or FedEx shipping label. No work may be removed before the end of the exhibition. There will be an opening reception on September 5, 2008.

Prizes: Cash prizes will be awarded.

Sales: Work may be for sale, or may be "NFS," but still must have a declared value. The NAA will take a commission on any work sold: 20% for working members (at least four volunteer hours per month), 30% for non-working members, and 40% for non-members. Membership information is available at our website: www.newarkartsalliance.org.

Hold Harmless: The NAA will handle work with care, but work in the exhibition will not be insured by the NAA, which will not be held responsible for damage or other loss. The artist may arrange for his/her own insurance.

Publicity: Artist agrees to have accepted work used by the NAA to publicize this and subsequent exhibitions, such as in press releases, on postcards, or on our website. Artists maintain copyright to their work.
