FEBRUARY/MARCH 2007

Art to Go ... go ... go ... go ... GO!

The NAA's Art to Go program sponsors free art projects for children at local parks, community and daycare centers, schools, and anywhere kids gather. That's one of the ways we bring our slogan alive and "develop community through the arts"!

From April through December, Art to Go sponsored 13 projects, with overall participation totaling 325. Of course, some of the youngsters were involved in more than one project, but that gives you some idea of the art experiences this program made available to children in Newark and nearby.

The support of the City of Newark through its revenue sharing funds got the program started. Additional funding received from New Castle County and The Brandywiners, Ltd., allowed projects to take place outside the city.

The NAA is currently seeking additional funds to support spring Art to Go projects. (See page 4.)

Interested in finding out when and where Art to Go classes will pop up next? Send your e-mail address to the NAA at info@newarkartsalliance.org and we'll put you on the mailing list.

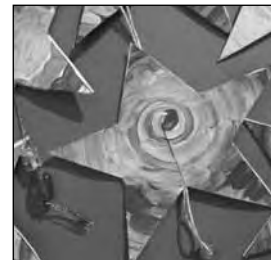

Where did Art to Go go?

From April through December, here's where Art to Go went.

- Silver Lake Treatment Center School, Middletown - two three-session workshops for 24 teens: clay workshops with Carole Fox; T-shirt printing and polymer bead workshops with Terry Foreman

Artful space for rent!

Looking for an artful, convenient, cozy spot for your business meeting, wedding or baby shower, anniversary dinner, performance, small-hall concert, children's birthday party, or other event? Check out the Newark Arts Alliance at 100 Elkton Road.

The site is available all day Monday, when the NAA is closed, and at other times depending on space needs and type of activity. We'll do our best to accommodate you. Contact Administrative Director Susan Logan at 302-266-7266 or info@newarkartsalliance.org about availability.

For most activities, the fee for each three-hour period (all or a portion) is $50 on weekdays, $75 on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. That fee provides use of the building (Main Gallery, Gallery Shop, classroom, kitchen, restrooms, tables and chairs), a volunteer to open and close the building, and free parking in the adjacent lot.

A $100 deposit (in the form of a personal check) is required. It will not be cashed except to cover cleaning costs or damage to the building or contents.

Children's parties in the classroom are $75 for up to 2.5 hours, and can include art instruction and supplies.

See the "Policies" section on the NAA Web for all the details.

project? You get use of the classroom for 2.5 hours ($75), an art instructor for a one-hour project of your choice ($40), and art supplies ($3 per child). A party attendant is also available for $25, but is not required if the parent assists. To check the schedule and for details, call the NAA at 302-266-7266.

Word Dancing. This lively poetry group meets Tuesdays at 8 p.m. at the NAA. An open mic is always part of the evening, coupled with featured poets, SLAMs, and special performances. Admission is $3. The sessions are recommended for ages 15 and up due to occasional language and subject matter. Info: wordslave@gmail.com or www.worddancing.com

More artwork for the Gallery Shop, please! Jewelry, cards, and unframed art are particularly popular. Do you know artists whose work would sell well? Encourage them to join the NAA and submit their work for the shop. See the box below for details on commission and work rotation. The policy is also on the NAA Web site.

Interested in commissions? The NAA has a membership benefit just for you. Artists can submit a two-page sample of their work to be exhibited in an artist registry portfolio binder at the NAA. Visitors interested in finding, for example, a muralist, jewelry maker, poet, or musician, can flip through the binder and connect with NAA artists. Each artist is limited to two 8.5x11-inch pages. The information must be professionally presented. Artists are encouraged to donate a commission to the NAA if they get work through the book.

NAA members: Get your work in the Gallery Shop!

The opportunity to sell work in the Gallery Shop at the Newark Arts Alliance is one of the benefits of NAA membership. All types of artwork are welcome: paintings and prints, ceramics, jewelry and other "wearable art," music and poetry – and much more.

Artwork can be dropped off during regular NAA hours. The Gallery Shop Committee juries submissions during the fourth week of each month. Accepted work is displayed for one to three months.

The jury criteria are: originality (no kits or copies); well-crafted, skillful execution; and professional presentation. All 2-D work must be framed with picture wire for hanging, or mounted, matted, and covered with acetate. Unframed flat art should not exceed 24 inches in any dimension.

All work must be for sale. The commission to the NAA is 30% for non-working members and 20% for working members (at least four hours per month).

For details, see the Gallery Shop information in the "Policies" section on the Web site (bottom of the home page, www.newarkartsalliance.org).

NAA Exhibition Gallery Guidelines

For juried shows, artists may submit up to three pieces. The submission fee is $5 per artwork. This charge supports promotional and other costs associated with the exhibit. If the fee prohibits you from participating, please write to the Exhibition Gallery Committee and request a waiver.

Please include label on each entry with your name, the title of the work, the medium (acrylic, raku, computer scan, etc.), your phone number and e-mail address, and a selling price, if applicable. (Work may be marked NFS.) All 2-D work must have a hanging wire on the back and must be framed in keeping with professional standards (no dirty mats, damaged glass, chipped frames, etc.).

Commission on sales to the NAA is 20% for working members (at least four volunteer hours per month), 30% for non-working members, and 40% for non-members.

You've Been Framed, Main Street Florist, Hardcastle Gallery, Sinclair's Café, Brewed Awakenings, Central Perk, Gecko Fashions, Home Grown Café, and Caffé Gelato. The spaces will accommodate approximately 12 pieces. Contact Pamela Skwish at 302-731-9289 for details.

Spotlight on Community Arts

International Photography Exhibition. The exhibition will be held Feb. 18-25 at Arsht Hall on the Wilmington University of Delaware campus, 2800 Pennsylvania Avenue. Audiovisual presentations of the pictorial and photo-journalism slides will be given on the two Sundays, with showings at 1 and 3 p.m.

Quilter's Day Out. Newark Parks & Recreation is offering a day-long event for quilters of all ages. "Piece of Mind: A Quilter's Day Out" will be held Sat., March 24, from 8:30 a.m.-4 p.m. at the Newark Senior Center.

Participants can choose from 16 morning demonstrations and eight hands-on afternoon workshops. The cost is $50 for all day, $33 for the morning/lunch only and $23 for just the afternoon workshop. The registration deadline is March 12.

For a registration brochure, call 302-366-7060 or stop by the Newark Parks & Recreation Office on Elkton Road. A portion for the proceeds will be shared with the Quilts for Comfort organization.

Art in words. An opening reception for "In Words: The Art of Language," will be held Thurs., Feb. 22, from 5-7 p.m. at the University of Delaware's University Gallery on Main Street. Artists use the familiar and concrete forms of letters, words, and books to create sculptures, mysteries, and jokes.

The exhibit includes work by Cy Twombly, Jasper Johns, Brice Marden, Erica Baum, Abby Donovan, Nancy Dwyer, Ken Fandell, Carson Fox, Nina Katchdourian, Udomsak Krisanamis, Tony Hepburn, Suzanne Mc Clelland, Chris Walla, Holland Williams, Sue Williams, and Janet Zweig. The show runs through March 16. Info: 302-831-8037

Music at Newark Library. The Righter Than Rain String Duo will play Wed., Feb. 21, at 7 p.m. Chris Braddock and Janka Pernisz offer an eclectic repertoire of classical, jazz, Celtic songs, gypsy music, and much more. The program is free. Info: 302-731-7550

Still life at Biggs Museum. "Focus On: Still Life" is the first in a series of interactive exhibitions designed for children at the Dover museum. In a gallery setting, surrounded by a variety of still lifes, children of all ages can create their own art and then take their masterpiece home with them. Info: 302-674-2111 or www.biggsmuseum.org

What's Up With the NAA

Celebrate NAA volunteers! The annual NAA Volunteer Appreciation Brunch and Trip is set for Sat., March 10. It's our way of saying thanks to the folks whose creativity, dedication, skills, and sweat equity keep the organization running.

A buffet brunch will be served at the NAA from 9:30-11 a.m., followed by a trip to the Fonthill Museum in Doylestown, PA, with the organization picking up the tab. (For more info, visit www.mercermuseum.org.)

Volunteers can choose to come out for either one or both parts of the celebration. We couldn't do it without you!

And we're looking for a few more ... The NAA has volunteer spots we're looking to fill. We've tried to get this job done in various ways and never quite gotten it to work!

Do you like to walk around downtown Newark, getting a little exercise and popping in and out of stores? Maybe you'd like to do that regularly, say once a month – and drop off NAA newsletters on your rounds. It would be a really valuable service in getting the word out!

Success! During November and December, sales at the Holiday Art Market and the Gallery Shop totaled $8,000. It's great for everyone – 31 artists sold their work and 20% of the total goes to the NAA to support our programs.

Now we are six ... We're up to six "arty parties" at the NAA. Youngsters have celebrated their birthdays with a variety of projects, built around everything from shoes and collages to bugs, cars, and necklaces.

Would you like to celebrate a child's special day with a party and art

Where to Catch Their Work

Karen O'Lone Hahn will have her work included in Art Expo 2007 at the Javits Center in New York City from March 1-5. She will be booth #213 in the SOLO Artist Pavilion. The artist is now being represented by Artiszen Art Gallery, 12 Mechanic Street, New Hope, PA.

"Regional Reflections" features pinhole photographs of amusement parks by Nancy Breslin, and jewelry and sculpture by Caryn Hetherston. The show is at the Elkton Station Gallery, 107 Railroad Avenue, Elkton, through March 1.

The largest exhibition of Heather Siple's abstract images of plants and denizens of the green world will be on display through April 8 at the Delaware Agricultural Museum and Village in Dover.

Through hand-printed black-and-white photographs, "Journey of the Seasons" brings to view the minute changes that make up our grand landscape from season to season. The museum is located at 866 North DuPont Highway, Dover. Siple's images can also be viewed at www.sipleart.com.

Where can people catch your work?

E-mail info@newarkartsalliance.org to share your exhibits, projects, and arts activities. The deadline is the 15th for the following month's issue.
