The Newark Arts Alliance is a locally supported cultural non-profit organization. Our mission is to provide the citizens of greater Newark with the opportunity to explore and display their creativity, as well as participate in cultural events that build community. We provide the means to celebrate life through all forms of artistic diversity.

The NAA's programs are made possible, in part, by grants from the National Endowment for the Arts and the Delaware Division of the Arts, a state agency committed to promoting and supporting the arts in Delaware. The Delaware Division of the Arts provides technical and financial assistance to artists and arts programs and serves as a clearinghouse for information on the arts.

No space goes to waste at the NAA!

There's art everywhere ... even the walls in the two "comfort stations" have been turned into canvases by a series of young artists. Bobby Boucher started the process in 2005 with a self-portrait and poetry in the women's room, followed by a seascape created by Maria Kazakova. Crystal White finished off that room with a dragon mural, assisted by Sierra Fox. Open the men's room door and you'll find a trio of tigers created by Adrian Poole.

NAA members: Get your work in the Gallery Shop!

The opportunity to show and sell work in the Gallery Shop at the Newark Arts Alliance is one of the benefits of NAA membership.

All types of artwork are welcome: paintings, pottery, cards and postcards, jewelry, sculpture – and much more. The committee is particularly interested in expanding the collection of music, literature (novels, poetry, chapbooks, cartoon anthologies, etc.), and films for sale in the shop.

Items can be dropped off at any time during regular hours. Submissions are juried by the Gallery Shop Committee during the fourth week of each month. Accepted work will be displayed for one to three months.

The jury criteria are: originality (no kits or copies); well-crafted, skillful execution; and professional presentation. All 2-D work must be framed with picture wire for hanging, or mounted, matted, and covered with acetate.

All work must be for sale. The commission to the NAA is 30% for non-working members and 20% for working members (at least four hours per month).

What's Up With the NAA

A fine, fizzy, and fermented evening! "Hop to It" pays homage to the brewer's art – it's a celebration of cool brews and summertime blues sponsored by the Newark Arts Alliance. The event, on Fri., July 21, from 7-9 p.m., offers the opportunity to sample a selection of distinctive beers and appetizers in an artful setting.

Pollard's Pharmacy will provide live music, and "Art Bytes," an exhibition of computer-aided artwork, will be hanging on the NAA's walls. A silent auction of art items will also be part of the evening.

Pollard's Pharmacy

The beer tasting, like the NAA's "April in Paris" wine tasting, is hosted by experts from State Line Liquors. The suggested donation is $15 per person at the door.

Pollard's Pharmacy includes John Pollard, guitarist and songwriter for The Cole Younger Band; Marc Moss, lead guitarist and owner/producer at Target Studios; and Glen Walther, bass. The Cole Younger Band, named for the legendary outlaw, has been a fixture on the local scene since the early 1980s.

So come out and enjoy summer suds and sounds!

Shorter summer hours. Through August, the hours at the NAA are Tuesday-Friday, noon-7 p.m., and Saturday and Sunday, noon-3 p.m. This is both a cost-saving measure and a recognition of the fact that it's much more difficult to find volunteer monitors during the summer months.

Saving money. We're making additional efforts to save money in the face of an expected summer shortfall. It's a challenge to make ends meet when basic expenses for rental, utilities, and personnel remain constant, while income from memberships, renewals, classes, and shows drop off, and we're waiting for grant money to arrive.

Lighting and air-conditioning are kept at a minimum and turned off whenever possible to cut the electric bill. We generally use enough to push us into the commercial category, which is substantially more expensive, but are close to dropping to a lower level.

Raising money. More artwork for the Gallery Shop, please! Jewelry, cards, and unframed are particularly popular. Do you know artists whose work would sell well? Encourage them to join the NAA and submit their work for the shop. See page 14 for details on commission and work rotation. The policy is also on the NAA Web site.

Thanks to the entrants in the "Through the Artist's Eye" show. Their entry fees raised a much-needed $400.

Fees will also be increased next year for solo shows ($75) and closed-group (collaborative) shows ($25 per artist) in the Exhibition Gallery.

Mosaic "Four Seasons Gala." The committee planning this major fall fund-raiser – which benefits the NAA, Newark Symphony Orchestra, and Mid-Atlantic Ballet – has created a Web site and a publicity photo, and attracted the support of six major sponsors.

The gala will be held Sat., Nov. 4, in the ballroom of the Trabant Center at the University of Delaware.

The Web site (www.newarkartsalliance.org/mosaic.html) is linked to the NAA site. Designed by Nancy Breslin, it provides information about the event and sponsorship opportunities. Tickets will be available for online purchase in September.

Breslin also shot the publicity photo (at right). Roman Pawlowski, symphony director, is surrounded by the "seasons." Clockwise from lower left, they are ballet company members Zoe Cloonan (in green, representing spring), Morgan Sweede (in orange, representing fall), Lisa Strouss (in blue, representing winter), and Kristen McAllister (in red, representing summer).

The sponsors to date are Paul Schlosser, Vance A. Funk III, Wilmington Trust, Gore, Landmark Engineering, and Verizon.

College student internships. Searching for an internship experience? Want to do more than fetch coffee and shuffle file folders? Looking for opportunities within walking distance of the UD campus?

Make a difference by donating your time to the NAA. You can be a gallery monitor; get experience with operating a gallery and a retail shop; plan events, projects, classes, and exhibits; get involved in marketing and

For most activities, the fee for each three-hour period (all or a portion) is $50 on weekdays, $75 on Friday, Saturday, and Sunday. That fee provides use of the building (Main Gallery, Gallery Shop, classroom, kitchen, restrooms, tables and chairs), a volunteer to open and close the building, and free parking in the adjacent lot.

A $100 deposit (in the form of a personal check) is required. It will not be cashed except to cover cleaning costs or damage to the building or contents.

Interested in commissions? The NAA has a new membership benefit just for you. Artists can submit a two-page sample of their work to be exhibited in an artist registry portfolio binder at the NAA. The information must be professionally presented. Artists are encouraged to donate a commission to the NAA if they get work through the book.
