406: Moving from Point and Shoot to Artistic Photography

Taught by Ray Magnani, Ages 18+

$60 members, $66 non-members

Are you interested in photography, but know that you have room to grow, to be more in control, to be able to express yourself through images? This class will enable you to create images that you will feel proud to display. While discussing composition is a main focus of the class, I will introduce shutter speed and aperture, manual and auto focus, controlling contrast, lens focal length and depth of field. The class will meet for two evenings and there will also be a meet up class on Sat. 6/26 and/or Sun., 6/27, 4 to 6 pm. You may continued on next page come to either or both. This will allow us to have images to critique at the last evening class. While it is not a requirement that you have a digital camera that has user controllable functions, some of the techniques we will discuss will be unavailable to simple cameras or phones.

June 26 to July 17, 4 Saturdays, 10am-12pm
407: Sketchbooks – It's about seeing Taught by Michele Tilford, Ages 15+
$84 members, $92 non-members
Sometimes we just need a goal. Developing a habit of regular sketching is an easily obtainable one. In addition to improving your drawing with consistent practice, regular drawing will enhance the way you see the surrounding world. Sketchbooks are part of many portfolios for entry into art school and this class can get you there. In addition to enjoying the company of fellow "sketchers" we will also explore basic art techniques as well as using nearby locales for inspiration. Material list online.
