On the first day of class, students will be given a new stark-white sketchbook with lots of empty pages. We will begin by decorating the cover with fun, mixed-media materials such as decorative paper, photographs, magazine clippings, gems and more! Each day of camp students will fill the pages of their book with new art projects, each focusing on a different art medium such as oil-pastels, watercolors and collage materials. Campers will also use uncommon and exciting materials such as shaving cream and food coloring! By the end of the week, campers will return home with their sketchbook full of art exploding from the pages!
