Where Do You Fit In?

If you're an artist you can display and sell your work. You can teach a class. Everyone can buy art, take a class, attend events, volunteer, serve on a committee, join the board and help spread the word. There are endless opportunities just waiting to be discovered. Find your place at the Newark Arts Alliance!

What is the Newark Arts Alliance?

The Newark Arts Alliance is a membership driven non-profit organization that brings the arts to the community. Membership is not limited to artists. Anyone wishing to support the arts is welcome to join. Local art is given a voice through the many programs at the NAA. These include gallery exhibits, a gallery shop, art classes, art clubs, summer camps, art in the community and many special events.

Many offerings are free and membership is not required.

What You'll Find When Visiting Us

Eleven exhibits each year with free art receptions open to all

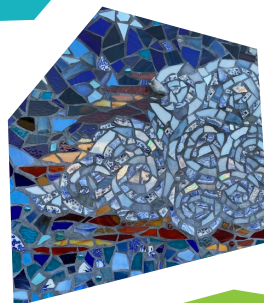

Gallery shop showing the works of over 115 local artists

Free art in the community through "Art to Go" art projects at local events

Camp Imagine, for fine and performing arts serves 36 kids, some with scholarships

The NAA began in 1993 with a gathering of artists, musicians, writers, dancers and actors. Current membership is over 300 households. The NAA also employs over 50 volunteers on a regular basis and many more for special events.

Special Events

Gingerbread Bash & Competition

Our Mission

The Newark Arts Alliance provides the citizens of greater Newark with the opportunity to explore and display their creativity, as well as to participate in cultural events that build community. We do this by offering gallery space for exhibitions, an art gift shop, classes and workshops, regularly meeting art groups and special events.

We are...

*"Inspiring Creativity,
Innovation, and Appreciation of the Arts"*
